

How a Bill Becomes a Law

* Joint, concurrent, and other resolutions of the legislature do not require the signature of the governor to become effective